

Applied Archaeology & Architectural Assessment Program

Illinois State Museum Society

Researching the Past to Enrich the Future

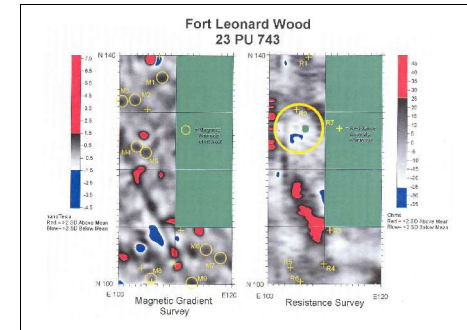

CULTURAL RESOURCE ASSESSMENTS

Section 106 Compliance

Archaeological Surveys

Historical Architecture

Historic Preservation

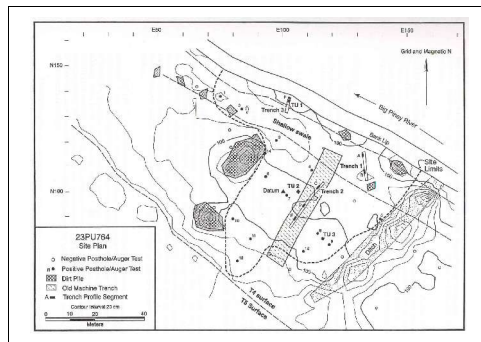

Performance

- Highly trained and professional staff
- “Premium” quality fieldwork, analyses, and reporting
- Strong working relationship with federal and state regulatory agencies
- Exceptional record of report approval
- Competitive prices
- Listed with the Illinois Historic Preservation Agency as a qualified, comprehensive, cultural resource management program

Facilities and Resources

- Full GIS applications
- Computer-assisted morphometry
- Archaeozoology laboratory
- Archaeomalacology laboratory
- Archaeobotany laboratory
- On-site curation capability
- In-house statewide site file
- Serving Illinois & Greater Midwest

For more information contact:
Dr. Michael S. Sheehan
Director, 4A Program
Illinois State Museum
Research and Collections Center
1011 E. Ash St.
Springfield, IL 62703
800-556-0124

email: msheehan@museum.state.il.us

Satisfy your compliance requirements and contribute to archaeological research in Illinois