

Behind the Scenes: Web Resources

<http://www.artmuseums.harvard.edu/renaissance>

Several Renaissance paintings are studied regarding their condition. A painting is cleaned. X-ray and ultra-violet light inspection are demonstrated.

<http://www.city.ac.uk/artspol/#mus>

This site has conservation and registrar procedures listed. Resource for professionals.

<http://www.gradschools.com/listings/all/museum.html>

Lists programs of Museum Studies for the eastern half of the United States with a brief description of each.

<http://www.uis.edu/~cam>

Master's program in Public Administration with a concentration in Community Arts Management at the University of Illinois at Springfield. Site has links to professional arts sites.

<http://www.eduweb.com/adventures.html>

an entertaining set of adventures in art and science with interactivity. See Ace Pintura and Inside Art.

<http://www.artsednet.getty.edu/ArtsEdNet/Resources/Sampler/h.html>

Experiencing Original Works of Art in a Museum—teacher's pre-visit guide.

<http://www.nhm.ad.uk/interactive/science-casebooks/index.html>

The Natural History Museum in London's interactive educational activities feature animals, anthropology, and exploration.

<http://www.wustl.edu/galleryofart/> Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri, Art Gallery features Web exhibits on Modern Art and works from the collection.